CHAPTER ONE

FOUNDING PROVISIONS AND POLITICAL PRINCIPLES

1.1 NAME

1.1.1 The name of the Party is the Democratic Alliance.

1.1.2 The Democratic Alliance is a political party that will register for and participate in elections and in political activities in the national, provincial and local spheres of government in the Republic of South Africa.

1.2. VISION

The Democratic Alliance's vision is of a prosperous, Open Opportunity Society for All that is uniquely South African; in which every person is free, secure, and equal before the law; and in which everyone has the means to improve the quality of his life and pursue her own aspirations.

Our vision rests on the belief that:

South Africans can and must overcome the historic divisions of race and ethnicity, and unite in our diversity around a shared South African identity.

All South Africans are of equal worth and have a right to full participation in the life of our common South African society.

South Africa's Constitution is the only foundation on which an Open Opportunity Society for All can be built because it recognises that every person is equal in dignity and worth and guarantees the freedom of each individual. The rights enshrined in the constitution must be defended and promoted in order to protect the people of South Africa from the concentration and abuse of power.

An independent and effective opposition and alternative government that is loyal to the constitutional order is essential to the promotion and preservation of democracy and freedom in our country.

An independent and vibrant civil society is essential to the preservation of an open society, because it acts as a bulwark against any attempt by the state or the ruling party to impose a hegemony of thought and truth over society.

The dignity of every person and the freedoms enshrined in the constitution cannot fully be realised unless everyone has the means to pursue his own happiness and improve the quality of her life. Consequently, the creation of meaningful opportunity must be central to the programme of government at every level.

The force behind the growing prosperity of any society is a socially and environmentally responsible free enterprise economy driven by choices, risks and hard work. Without the growth in prosperity created through the exercise of the market economy there can be no opportunity, freedom loses its purpose and choices become increasingly limited.

No one must be left behind in an opportunity society. The government must therefore provide access to education and training, and promote the progressive realisation of access to social security, housing and healthcare for those who through no fault of their own are unable to provide for themselves

1.3 PRINCIPLES

The vision of the Democratic Alliance is grounded on the defence, promotion and extension of the following principles:

- 1.3.1 the fundamental rights and freedoms of every person - including the right to freedom of conscience, speech, association, and movement;
- 1.3.2 the rejection of unfair discrimination on any grounds;
- 1.3.3 the supremacy of the South African constitution and the rule of law;
- 1.3.4 the language, cultural and religious rights of individuals and the communities they create through free association;
- 1.3.5 equality before the law;
- 1.3.6 the separation of legislative, executive and judicial power.
- 1.3.7 a judiciary that is independent;
- 1.3.8 elections that are regular, free and fair;
- 1.3.9 representative and accountable government elected on the basis of universal adult suffrage;
- 1.3.10 the devolution of power to locate government as close as possible to the people;

- 1.3.11 the clear division between the ruling party and the state;
- 1.3.12 respect for the right or a vibrant civil society and a free media to function independently;
- 1.3.13 the rejection of violence and intimidation as a political instrument;
- 1.3.14 the right of all people to private ownership and to participate freely in the market economy;
- 1.3.15 the progressive realisation of access to housing, health services and social security for all people who are unable to help themselves;
- 1.3.16 the protection and conservation of the environment;
- 1.3.17 the right of all people to protection by the state from crime and violence;
- 1.3.18 access to education and training.

1.4 MISSION STATEMENT

As a proud South African loyal to the constitution, I commit myself to serve with integrity the people of my country by building a party that is home to all South Africans, makes a visible difference to the lives of our people and promotes an Open Opportunity Society for All in which every person is free, secure, equal before the law and has the means to improve the quality of his or her life.

1.5. PROGRAMME OF ACTION

- 1.5.1 The Party will promote its growth in all communities with the intention of realising its vision and advancing its principles either as government or opposition in all spheres.
- 1.5.2 The programme of action must include provisions aiming at, but not be limited to, the following:
 - 1.5.2.1 serving the needs of the people of South Africa through the structures and resources of the Party;
 - 1.5.2.2 endeavouring to gain control of governments in all spheres of government;

- 1.5.2.3 being an effective government when in power;
 - 1.5.2.4 being an effective opposition when not in government;
 - 1.5.2.5 holding its public representatives to account.
- 1.5.3 The Party must seek to co-operate with other political formations in South Africa and on the African continent who share its commitment to the vision of an Open Opportunity Society for All and its passion for freedom, dignity, equality and democracy.

1.6 LEGAL PERSONALITY AND POWERS

- 1.6.1 The Party is a body corporate with perpetual succession.
- 1.6.2 The Party is capable of suing and being sued in its own name and it may own, purchase, sell, hire, lease, mortgage, pledge or in any other way acquire, alienate or deal with movable and immovable property and may perform all legal activities authorized by this Constitution and by the Provincial Constitutions as well as legal activities normally associated with a body corporate.
- 1.6.3 The Party shall only be legally bound in the exercise of its competencies set out in this Constitution by a person or persons authorized in advance, in writing, by the Chairperson of the Federal Council or a person or party formation delegated by him or her in writing.
- 1.6.4 The Federal Executive represented by the Chairperson of the Federal Council may act on behalf of and legally bind the Party in all matters.
- 1.6.5 No other member or formation of the Party may act on behalf of and legally bind the Party. Any person or persons who purport to do so in contravention of the provisions of this Constitution, shall be personally liable therefor.
- 1.6.6 The Chairperson of the Federal Executive or someone authorized by him or her in writing represents the Party in all legal proceedings by or against the Party.
- 1.6.7 All monies received and collected in the name of the Party vest in the Party itself.

1.6.8 Income and assets of the Party are not distributable to members or office bearers except as reasonable compensation for services rendered.

CHAPTER TWO

GENERAL ORGANISATIONAL PRINCIPLES OF THE PARTY

2.1 GENERAL STRUCTURE OF THE PARTY

- 2.1.1 The Party consists of members who are organised in and function democratically through the organisational formations of the Party.
- 2.1.2 The organisational formations of the Party are set out in this Constitution, and consist of formations at federal, provincial, regional, constituency and local level.
- 2.1.3 At local level the Party must establish branches with democratically elected branch committees, and strive to establish a branch in every ward within the Republic of South Africa.
- 2.1.4 Branches are the basic organisational formations of the Party and every member of the Party must be a member of a Branch and must exercise his or her rights and privileges as a member through his or her Branch and its elected representatives and delegates.
- 2.1.5 The Party must establish constituencies as organisational formations above the branches. Such constituencies must be delimited taking local circumstances into account and must cover all of the wards within the geographical area concerned.
- 2.1.6 Where constituencies have been delimited and allocated by the regional or provincial structures concerned after consultation with the branches in the area, a democratically elected constituency committee assumes responsibilities in terms of the provincial constitution.
- 2.1.7 The formations may also include formations at regional and sub-regional level depending upon the circumstances of each province and the provisions of the provincial constitution.
- 2.1.8 At provincial level the Party must establish a provincial congress for every province in the Republic of South Africa .

- 2.1.9 Provincial Congresses may establish Provincial Councils as set out in their Provincial Constitutions that fairly reflect the profile of the composition of their Congresses.
- 2.1.10 Provincial Congresses must establish a Provincial Executive and other committees as may be provided for in their Provincial Constitutions.
- 2.1.11 At national level the Party must establish a Federal Congress and the other formations provided for in this constitution.
- 2.1.12 The Party is assisted and supported by the Democratic Alliance Women's Network, the Democratic Alliance Youth, and other bodies which function in terms of this Constitution and in terms of Rules or Constitutions approved by the Federal Council.
- 2.1.13 The Federal Congress is the highest level at which the democratically expressed will of the members is stated and the Federal Congress is thus the highest authority in respect of all matters in the Party, subject to the provisions of this constitution.
- 2.1.14 Formations in the Party have the authority, powers and functions set out in this constitution and in the Provincial Constitutions.
- 2.1.15 Wherever a formation of the Party is entitled to representation on higher formations, it will only be entitled to that representation if it is validly constituted in terms of this Constitution and any other Constitution of the Party applicable to it, and subject further to the provisions of clause 3.11.3.

2.2. NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES

- 2.2.1 The Federal Council must adopt nomination regulations for the selection of candidates.
- 2.2.2 Those regulations must make provision for provincial and local variations to suit the circumstances of the provinces. Detailed written grounds must be supplied motivating variations by the province and/or local formation concerned.
- 2.2.3 Regulations for the nomination and selection of candidates for the National Assembly must provide for provincial lists only.

2.3 VOTING

- 2.3.1 Subject to the provisions of this constitution, voting at meetings of all bodies of the Party is by a show of hands, unless secret ballot is required by the person presiding or by one-tenth of the members present;
- 2.3.2 Decisions at all meetings are taken by a majority of members present and voting, provided that:
 - 2.3.2.1 a teleconference shall only be regarded as a meeting if a quorum of the participants is present and if notice of such a teleconference has been given to the members; and further provided that, where a secret ballot is requested, voting shall take place at a special meeting called thereafter;
 - 2.3.2.2 the Federal Council may, in exceptional circumstances, allow distance voting by a member not present at the relevant meeting in cases of meetings of Federal structures of the Party, but who has heard the deliberations; and
 - 2.3.2.3 the presiding officer at a meeting has a casting as well as a deliberative vote.
- 2.3.3 The membership of the Party is audited on 31 May or such other date as the Federal Council from time to time decides. A member of the Party who is a member on the audit date is entitled to vote at all meetings of the Party subsequent to that date until the next audit date. Members who join the Party or renew their membership after the audit date, shall be entitled to vote at all meetings 30 days after the date of joining or renewal: provided that the Provincial and Regional Executive may determine an appropriate cut-off date for voting by new members at inaugural general meetings.
- 2.3.4 All elections to office within the Party involving the election of more than one person to an office must be by a proportional voting system approved by the Federal Council.

2.4 POLICY

- 2.4.1 The supreme policy-making body of the Party is the Federal Congress in session. Proposals affecting the Vision or the Principles of the Party as contained in this constitution shall not be debated or decided upon unless four weeks prior written notice has been given to delegates to Congress, or in the event of such notice not having been given, by a four-fifths majority vote of all those present and voting, the Federal Congress agrees to debate and decide upon such proposals.

- 2.4.2 When the Federal Congress is not in session, the Federal Council may formulate policy in matters where no policy has been stated or where the stated policy is not clear or needs to be specifically applied, expressed, amended or expanded in accordance with the Vision and the Principles of the Party.
- 2.4.3 When the Federal Congress and Federal Council are not in session, the Leader and the Caucuses have policy functions that are dealt with elsewhere in this constitution.
- 2.4.4 Provincial Congresses of the Party may adopt policy on matters that are within the competence of the provinces in terms of the Constitution of South Africa provided that they must not contradict the Vision and the Principles of the Party or a policy decision of the Federal Congress or Federal Council.

2.5 STANDARDS OF CONDUCT OF PARTY MEMBERS

- 2.5.1 All Party members are subject to the discipline of the Party and submit to the provisions of this constitution in regard to rules on conduct and to the disciplinary procedures set out in Chapter 9.
- 2.5.2 All Party members submit to the right of the Party, subject to clause 2.5.5, to remove any public representative from office in any executive or legislative sphere of government or office within the Party, on the grounds of incompetence, inefficiency or incapacity.
- 2.5.3 Any member, including a public representative, is guilty of misconduct if he or she:
 - 2.5.3.1 publicly opposes the Party's principles or repeatedly opposes published party policies, except in or through the appropriate Party structures;
 - 2.5.3.2 deliberately acts in a way which impacts negatively on the image or performance of the Party;
 - 2.5.3.3 acts in any manner whatsoever which results in him or her being found guilty of a serious criminal offence by a court of first instance;

- 2.5.3.4 fails to carry out his or her duties or responsibilities according to standards set by the Federal Council of the Party or of the relevant Provincial or Regional Council as embodied in the applicable Code of Conduct, or to standards required by any statutory rules of conduct required by the public office he or she holds;
- 2.5.3.5 brings the good name of the Party into disrepute or harms the interests of the Party;
- 2.5.3.6 acts in a manner that is unreasonable and detrimental to internal co-operation within the Party;
- 2.5.3.7 unreasonably fails to comply with or rejects decisions of the official formations of the Party;
- 2.5.3.8 submits or attempts to submit false membership forms or commits or attempts to commit membership fraud in any way;
- 2.5.3.9 contravenes any of the explicit Party decisions or regulations for the appropriation of Party finances;
- 2.5.3.10 collects money on behalf of or in the name of the Party or any of its structures without depositing such money in a bank account opened and operated in terms of procedures approved by the Federal Finance Committee and/or operates a bank account in which Party money is deposited without the approval of the Federal Finance Committee or a structure of the Party authorized by it;
- 2.5.3.11 in any election for office, or in opposing any proposed or existent Party policy or process, mobilizes or attempts to mobilise opposition to the policy or process, or opposition to or discrimination against [or opposition to] any person on the grounds of race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language or birth.
- 2.5.3.12 publicly alleges or implies that he or she, or any group of members, have been unfairly prejudiced, or any member or group of members unjustifiably preferred, as a consequence of that member's or those members' race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language or birth. Any such concern must be referred to the Mediation Panel established in this Constitution.

- 2.5.4 A public representative may be removed from office on the grounds of incompetence, inefficiency or incapacity, but only in terms of the procedures laid down in Chapter 9.
- 2.5.5 Subject to clause 3.5, disciplinary action against any public representative or any member which could result in that member's membership being terminated or his or her privileges being curtailed, can only be taken in terms of Chapter 9.

CHAPTER THREE

MEMBERSHIP AND BRANCHES

3.1 MEMBERSHIP

- 3.1.1 Every person wishing to become a member of the Democratic Alliance must:
- 3.1.1.1 be 16 years of age or older, provided that persons younger than 16 may be enrolled as Junior Members if the Constitution of the Democratic Alliance Youth provides for this category of member;
 - 3.1.1.2 be a citizen or a permanent resident of South Africa;
 - 3.1.1.3 subscribe to the Vision, the Principles, the Programme of Action and the Mission Statement of the Party;
 - 3.1.1.4 agree to abide by the constitution of the Party;
 - 3.1.1.5 apply in writing to become a member of the Party, by signing the prescribed membership application form;
 - 3.1.1.6 personally pay the annual membership subscription and comply with any other conditions set by the Federal Executive. What constitutes personal payment will be regulated by the Federal Executive from time to time.
- 3.1.2 Membership takes effect when a person complies with the requirements for membership as set out in clause 3.1, and pays the membership fee in accordance with regulations approved by the Federal Council from time to time.
- 3.1.3 A person may enrol as a member at any time during the year subject thereto that
- 3.1.3.1 a member who enrolled on or before 30 September of any year, remains a member until 31 May of the next year; and
 - 3.1.3.2 a member who enrolled on or after 1 October of any year will be regarded as having enrolled in the next year and he or she remains a member through that next year and until 31 May of the year thereafter.

- 3.1.4 Any member who fails to renew his or her membership on or before the due date resumes membership only from the date upon which he or she pays the annual membership subscription and is subject to the 30 day requirement referred to in clause 2.3.3.
- 3.1.5 Anyone who renews their membership before it lapses or within 6 months of it lapsing, shall not be required to sign a new membership form.
- 3.1.6 A donor to the Party whose donation in that year exceeds the annual membership subscription, and a public representative whose compulsory contribution to the Party in that year exceeds the annual membership subscription, need not pay the annual subscription.
- 3.1.7 The Party may provide for life membership of the Party as an honour given at the discretion of the Federal Council.

3.2 REFUSAL OF MEMBERSHIP

- 3.2.1 The Executive of a Constituency or a Regional or Provincial Executive may refuse to accept the membership of any person other than a public representative of the Party who joined the Party in accordance with 3.1.1 within 15 days of the payment of the membership subscription by such a person, in the case of a constituency refusal, 30 days in the case of a regional refusal and 60 days in the case of a Provincial Executive refusal.
- 3.2.2 A person whose membership was refused in terms of 3.2.1, may appeal that decision to the Provincial Executive, or, if the decision was taken by the Provincial Executive, to the Federal Executive. The decision of the Provincial or Federal Executive, as the case may be, is final.
- 3.2.3 Public representatives from other parties may only be accepted as members of the Party with the prior approval of the Federal Executive or a person designated by the Federal Executive, after consultation with the Provincial or Regional Executive concerned: provided that the Branch Executive must also be consulted in respect of a local government representative.

3.3 MEMBERSHIP SUBSCRIPTIONS

- 3.3.1 The Federal Council determines from time to time the minimum membership subscription of the Party and the date for payment. That minimum will be uniform for all members.
- 3.3.2 A Provincial Council or Provincial Executive may request an additional voluntary surcharge from members living in that province.
- 3.3.3 A branch may request additional voluntary annual subscriptions over and above the membership subscription prescribed by the Federal Council or Provincial Council or Provincial Executive.
- 3.3.4 A member may pay the membership fee for his or her spouse(s), partner, child, parent or dependant(s) living at the same address. Sponsored membership in any form or for any person or class of persons other than in terms of this clause or of clause 3.1.1.6 is not allowed.

3.4 DUAL MEMBERSHIP

A member or category of members of the Party may also be a member or members of another party or parties approved by the Federal Council for the period and on conditions determined by the Federal Council.

3.5 CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- 3.5.1 A member ceases to be a member of the Party when he or she:
 - 3.5.1.1 submits his or her written resignation from the Party;
 - 3.5.1.2 becomes or remains a member of another party other than one approved under this constitution;
 - 3.5.1.3 publicly declares his or her resignation or intention to resign from the Party or intention to join another party;
 - 3.5.1.4 fails to renew his or her membership on or before the date stipulated in clause 3.1.3;
 - 3.5.1.5 canvasses other Party members to resign from the Party;
 - 3.5.1.6 canvasses other Party members to join or support another Party;

- 3.5.1.7 stands or accepts nomination against an official candidate of the Party in any public election;
 - 3.5.1.8 is found guilty of any offence listed in Schedule 6 or 7 of the Criminal Procedure Act;
 - 3.5.1.9 is in default with the payment of any compulsory public representative contribution for a period of 2 (two) months after having been notified in writing that he or she is in arrears and fails to make satisfactory arrangements or fails to comply with such arrangements for payment of the arrears. For this purpose, “in writing” means a letter of demand setting out the amount owing and the date by when it must be paid.
- 3.5.2 A member, who ceases to be a member of the Party, loses all privileges of Party membership and, if that member is a public representative, he or she also loses the office which he or she occupies by virtue of his or her membership, with immediate effect.
- 3.5.3 A statement under oath or affirmation by the member’s branch, regional or provincial chairperson supported by at least one further statement by a member of the relevant executive that such member’s membership has ceased in terms of clause 3.5.1, shall be sufficient grounds for the provincial executive to take the steps envisaged in clause 3.7.2, after due process and confirmation by the federal executive of the decision to terminate the membership of a member has taken place.

3.6 TERMINATION OR SUSPENSION OF MEMBERSHIP

- 3.6.1 Apart from clause 3.5, the membership of any member, including that of a public representative may only be terminated by a provincial executive and only after an enquiry in terms of Chapter 11.
- 3.6.2 The Party membership of a public representative who is removed from office in terms of clause 2.5.4 is not affected by that removal.
- 3.6.3 A Provincial Executive or the Federal Executive may suspend a Party member from any or all of the activities of the Party, pending the institution of a disciplinary enquiry in terms of Chapter 11: provided that a caucus may suspend a caucus member from all or any caucus activities, pending such an enquiry.

3.7 ONLY MEMBERS CAN SERVE

- 3.7.1 Only Party members can serve on the representative and other structures of the Party and be public representatives of the Party.
- 3.7.2 If the membership of a public representative is terminated in terms of 3.6.1 or if a public representative ceases to be a member of the Party by virtue of 3.5.1, the relevant Provincial Executive or Regional Executive, as the case may be, must notify the relevant authorities of the vacancy which has arisen.

3.8 BRANCHES

- 3.8.1 The basic organisational units of the Party are the branches. The Party will strive to establish and maintain a branch or branches for every local government ward in South Africa.
- 3.8.2 Branches are established to manage and direct the affairs of the Party, to communicate the principles and policy of the Party to the public, to mobilize the public in support of the programme of action of the Party, to participate in the process of democratic selection of candidates for the Party and to serve as the vehicle for the articulation of the interests of members of the Party and voters in their areas of jurisdiction.

3.9 MEMBERSHIP OF BRANCHES

- 3.9.1 Members of the Party belong to branches and exercise their voting rights as members in branches, or through representatives elected by branches.
- 3.9.2 Members belong to the branch established for the ward or voting district within which they live. Where no branch has yet been established in a ward, the Provincial Executive, or Regional Executive where one has been established, must allocate the members, in consultation with them, to the closest branch where it is practical and functional for them to be included as members.
- 3.9.3 A member of the Party can be a member of only one branch. Public representatives may attend and speak at all branches in the area of jurisdiction which they represent or which has been allocated to them, but they are entitled to vote only in the branch of which they are members.

- 3.9.4 A public representative may join any branch within the constituency or ward for which he or she is responsible, even if he or she does not live within that area, provided that he or she must advise the relevant Provincial or Regional Secretary of his or her choice.
- 3.9.5 A member may apply to the Provincial Executive to join a branch other than the branch within the area in which he or she lives. The Provincial Executive shall approve the application only on good cause shown.
- 3.9.6 Public representatives shall automatically be members of the Branch Executive of the branch of which they are a member.

3.10 AREA OF JURISDICTION OF BRANCHES

- 3.10.1 The area of jurisdiction of a branch must not be smaller than a voting district. The purpose of forming more than one branch per ward is for the promotion of the organizational objectives of the Party or for the convenience of the members of the Party in the ward and does not entitle the branches to more or additional representation in higher structures than there would have been had there been only one branch in the ward.
- 3.10.2 The area of jurisdiction of a branch is:
 - 3.10.2.1 the entire municipal ward if there is only one branch in the ward,
 - 3.10.2.2 as many voting districts as the Provincial or Regional Executive may direct if there is more than one branch in a ward;
 - 3.10.2.3 more than one ward if the Provincial or Regional Executive deems it not possible to establish and maintain a branch for each ward in the immediate future.

3.11 REPRESENTATION OF BRANCHES

- 3.11.1 Where there is more than one branch in a ward, the representation to other structures of the party will be allocated between the branches within the ward according to a formula determined by the Federal Council.
- 3.11.2 If the branches in a ward are jointly entitled to fewer representatives to higher bodies than the number of branches, or if that representation must be shared between branches, the representatives will be elected using a proportional voting system approved by the Federal Council by delegates from the branches involved at a combined branch meeting held at a date time and venue approved by the Constituency Committee. Each branch will be represented at that meeting by a number of delegates determined by the formula approved by the Federal Council.

- 3.11.3 The entitlement of a branch to representation to other structures of the Party is determined by the status of that branch as at the last audit date as provided in clause 2.3.3.

3.12 BRANCHES CROSSING PROVINCIAL BOUNDARIES

- 3.12.1 Where a municipality has been established across provincial boundaries, and a ward within the municipality falls within two provinces, branches comprising a voting district or districts may be established within each part of the ward within each province.
- 3.12.2 In the event of only one branch being established in a cross boundary ward the Provincial Executives must enter into an agreement and allocate the branch for management and representation purposes to an appropriate Party structure in one of the provinces.
- 3.12.3 Two or more branches falling within different provinces may, on account of their geographical situation and common interests, with the approval of the Provincial Executives, constitute a liaison committee to deal with common interests.

3.13 FORMATION OF BRANCHES

- 3.13.1 A branch may only be formed with the prior approval of the body vested with this responsibility in the Provincial Constitution and the Constituency Committee, and the branch area of jurisdiction must be determined at the same time. Approval for the formation of a branch must not be unreasonably withheld.
- 3.13.2 A branch may only be formed if the Provincial Executive certifies that there are at least 25 members within the area of jurisdiction of the branch.
- 3.13.3 A branch ceases to exist if its members drop below 25 as certified by the membership audit, or if a general meeting of the branch, of which notice was given to all members of the branch, decides to dissolve the branch, or if the branch fails to hold an annual general meeting. The members of the branch must then be transferred to an adjoining branch as determined by the Provincial Executive.

3.14 BRANCH MEETINGS

- 3.14.1 A Provincial Executive or where there is one, a Regional Executive, or the Constituency Committee as the case may be, may require a Branch Executive, which has failed to carry out its mandate in terms of the constitution, to convene a meeting of members for the purpose of electing a new Branch Executive and, if it fails to do so within 30 days, the Provincial or Regional Executive may itself convene such a meeting.
- 3.14.2 When a new branch is about to be formed or an existing branch is to hold an annual general meeting a notice indicating the date, time and venue of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted must be given to all of the members of the branch resident in the ward, to all public representatives of the Party responsible for the area and to the office of the Provincial or Regional Executive as the case may be. At least 14 days notice is required before such a meeting may be held.
- 3.14.3 The quorum for the holding of an inaugural meeting and for an annual general meeting will in all cases be thirteen (13) members.
- 3.14.4 The presiding officer at all inaugural and annual general meetings of branches must be a person designated by the Provincial or Regional Executive, as the case may be.
- 3.14.5 The Chairperson of a Branch Executive must call a general meeting of the branch within twenty one days if one-fifth of the members of the branch so request in writing.

3.15 BRANCH EXECUTIVES

Branch Executives:

- 3.15.1 must meet on a regular basis, but not less than once a quarter, at times, dates and venues determined by the Chairperson;
- 3.15.2 in general manage and guide the activities of the Party within their area of jurisdiction and ensure that the programme of action of the Party is implemented as far as possible;
- 3.15.3 give effect to the decisions of higher formations of the Party;

- 3.15.4 report to the Constituency Committee and, when so required, to other higher formations of the Party on activities and on local ideas and opinion;
- 3.15.5 assist the public representatives of the Party in implementing the policy and the programme of action;
- 3.15.6 communicate with members of the Party and the broader public in order to mobilize support for the Party.

CHAPTER FOUR

CONSTITUENCIES

4.1 DEMARCATION OF CONSTITUENCIES AND COMPOSITION OF CONSTITUENCY COMMITTEES

- 4.1.1 A Provincial Executive must, in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer of the Party and after due consultation with the Party structures and the incumbent Members of Parliament and Members of the relevant Provincial Legislature, demarcate constituency boundaries: provided that a Provincial Constitution may provide for a Provincial Executive to delegate the authority to demarcate constituency boundaries to another Party structure.
- 4.1.2 A constituency must be an area capable of being administered as a unit and must consist of one or more adjacent local municipalities, or, in the case of metropolitan areas or large municipalities, of adjacent wards, forming one geographical area.
- 4.1.3 Every constituency must have a Constituency Committee, the composition of which shall be as provided in the relevant Provincial Constitution.
- 4.1.4 The duly constituted Constituency Committee must elect from amongst its members a Constituency Executive and Constituency Chairperson.
- 4.1.5 The MP or MPL allocated to the constituency, as well as all councillors representing wards in the constituency or who are PR councillors who have been allocated to wards in the constituency, are automatically members of the Constituency Committee and the MP or MPL shall also be a member of the Constituency Executive.

4.2 POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF CONSTITUENCY COMMITTEES

- 4.2.1 The Constituency Committee participates in drafting an annual programme for the constituency and all its branches.
- 4.2.2 The Constituency Committee assists the public representatives and operational structures of the Party in implementing the policies and the programme of action of the Party.

4.3 ALLOCATION AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF CONSTITUENCY REPRESENTATIVES

- 4.3.1 The Provincial Executive must, after having demarcated constituencies as provided in this Constitution, and after consultation with the MP's and MPL's and regional executives where these exist, and the constituency executives, allocate one Member of Parliament or one Member of the Provincial Legislature, to a constituency as the Constituency Head.
- 4.3.2 The Constituency Head is the political leader in that constituency and is directly responsible to the Regional, Provincial and Federal leadership for the proper political functioning of the constituency and the branches within the constituency.
- 4.3.3 The constituency allocated to a representative is the area in which the representative must be available to serve the voters and support Party activities.
- 4.3.4 The Regional Executive, or if there is none, the Provincial Executive, shall, after consultation with the PR councillors, the Constituency Executive and the Caucus Executive, allocate PR councillors to wards and/or other specific responsibilities.
- 4.3.5 Ward Councillors take responsibility for the Ward for which they were elected, and they and PR Councillors take such other responsibilities as the regional or provincial organisation may allocate to them in consultation with the relevant caucus leader.
- 4.3.6 The Constituency Chairperson is administratively responsible for the Constituency.
- 4.3.7 The Constituency Operations Manager (COM) is responsible for executing the operations and political support in the Constituency.

CHAPTER FIVE

PROVINCES AND PROVINCIAL CONSTITUTIONS

5.1 PROVINCIAL CONSTITUTIONS

5.1.1 Each province must have a provincial constitution that must provide for:

- 5.1.1.1 a Provincial Congress,
- 5.1.1.2 a Provincial Council,
- 5.1.1.3 a Provincial Executive,
- 5.1.1.4 Constituency Committees,
- 5.1.1.5 Constituency Executives, and
- 5.1.1.6 Branch Committees

with all the appropriate and relevant provisions relating to those bodies: provided that a Provincial Constitution may make provision for Regions and Regional Councils as institutional structures between Constituencies and Congresses and may in such instance omit a Provincial Council.

5.1.2 Branches must be represented at Constituency Committee level and Constituency Committees at Provincial Council level: provided that where Regional Councils are created, Constituency Committees must be represented at Regional Council level and Regional Councils at Provincial Council level.

5.1.3 Provincial constitutions are intended to suit local conditions that may differ from province to province, and may therefore with the approval of the Federal Council deviate from this constitution to the extent that provision is made herein for such departure.

5.1.4 Any departure in a Provincial Constitution from the provisions of this constitution must be in clear and concise terms.

5.1.5 Provinces must within six months after the acceptance of any amendments to the Federal Constitution which conflict with their Provincial Constitutions, amend their Provincial Constitutions to bring them in line with the Federal Constitution: Provided that if no Provincial Congress takes place within that period, the province must implement the changes by way of rules adopted by the Provincial Council or Provincial Executive, which rules shall have the status and effect of constitutional imperatives: Provided further that the amendments to the Federal Constitution shall take effect immediately they are passed, regardless of whether the Provincial Constitutions have been amended unless a special dispensation is granted by the Federal Executive on the basis that it is impossible in the particular circumstances.

- 5.1.6 All provincial constitutions or amendments thereof must be submitted to the Federal Legal Commission for certification that they are in accordance with the Federal Constitution immediately after the adoption thereof, or such further limited period as the Federal Council may permit, and thereafter to the Federal Council for approval.

5.2 BRANCHES AND CONSTITUENCIES

The provisions of Chapters 3 and 4 of this Constitution in regard to branches and constituencies will apply in all respects to all provinces, unless the Federal Council approves of a deviation that conforms to clauses 5.1.1 to 5.1.4 above and is clearly set out in a Provincial Constitution.

5.3 REGIONAL STRUCTURE

- 5.3.1 If a Provincial Constitution makes provision for regions and Regional Councils or other regional structures, that constitution must clearly set out the powers and duties of such structures and how such structures are composed in order to comply with clauses 5.1.1 to 5.1.4 above.
- 5.3.2 The establishment of regional structures is subject to the general principles referred to in clauses 5.1.2 and 5.1.3 and a Provincial Constitution must give effect thereto.
- 5.3.3 Any amendments to a Provincial Constitution only takes effect upon the approval of that amendment by the Federal Council.

5.4 CONGRESS, PROVINCIAL COUNCIL AND PROVINCIAL EXECUTIVE

- 5.4.1 A Provincial Congress, Provincial Council and Regional council must be composed subject to the provisions of the Federal Constitution in regard to representation from lower to higher formations of the Party.
- 5.4.2 The Provincial Constitution must clearly set out how its provincial delegates to the Federal Council are determined.
- 5.4.3 A Provincial Council and Provincial Executive must:

- 5.4.3.1 ensure that all structures of the Party in the province are regularly elected;
- 5.4.3.2 ensure that all structures function properly and in terms of the requirements of the Federal and Provincial Constitutions;
- 5.4.3.3 prescribe systems that will help to ensure democracy, transparency and good governance;
- 5.4.3.4 make it possible for the Federal Council and the Federal Executive to provide leadership in campaigns and endeavours of a national nature with the co-operation and support of the provinces;
- 5.4.3.5 take responsibility for the financial affairs of the province.

5.5 VOTING AND REPRESENTATION

- 5.5.1 Elections to office and in particular where representatives from a lower to a higher formation are elected, must be in terms of a formula determined by the Federal Council.
- 5.5.2 The system of representation from subordinate bodies to higher formations must provide:
 - 5.5.2.1 for persons who are not public representatives to be active at all levels;
 - 5.5.2.2 for public representatives in all spheres to be present or be represented; and

5.6 FAILURE BY PROVINCES

- 5.6.1 If a province:
 - 5.6.1.1 fails to comply with the provisions of its own constitution;
 - 5.6.1.2 becomes unable to meet its financial commitments;
 - 5.6.1.3 cannot function properly due to internal strife or lack of leadership the Federal Executive may take steps to rectify the situation, provided that the Federal Executive shall report to the next Federal Council meeting as to what steps it has taken.

- 5.6.2 The steps referred to above may include a directive that the administration of the Province or any aspects thereof may be taken over by a designated Party official or body.

CHAPTER SIX

FEDERAL STRUCTURES

6.1 FEDERAL CONGRESS

- 6.1.1 The supreme policy-making and governing body of the party is the Federal Congress in session.
- 6.1.2 The Federal Congress generally meets at least once every two years but must be convened at any time by a two-thirds majority vote of the Federal Executive, a two-thirds majority vote of the Federal Council, or when requested by a petition signed by at least five thousand members of the Party.
- 6.1.3 The Congress comprises:
 - 6.1.3.1 the Leader;
 - 6.1.3.2 the Federal Chairperson;
 - 6.1.3.3 the three Deputy Federal Chairpersons;
 - 6.1.3.4 the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson of the Federal Council;
 - 6.1.3.5 the Federal Chairperson of Finance;
 - 6.1.3.6 the Chief Executive Officer;
 - 6.1.3.7 any co-opted members of the Federal Executive;

 - 6.1.3.9 all Members of Parliament and Members of Provincial Legislatures;
 - 6.1.3.10 local government councillors allocated to the provinces on the basis of a fixed ratio of 1:4, being four local government councillors to each Member of Parliament and Member of the Provincial Parliament in that province;

- 6.1.3.11 the Federal Leader, the Federal Chairperson and Provincial Leaders of the Democratic Alliance Youth;
 - 6.1.3.12 the Federal Leader, the Federal Chairperson and Provincial Leaders of the Democratic Alliance Women’s Network;
 - 6.1.3.13 the Chairperson of the Global Council of DA Overseas Branches or Networks;
 - 6.1.3.14 9 other delegates from DA Overseas Branches or Networks, allocated according to a formula approved by the Federal Council;
 - 6.1.3.15 delegates equal to either two percent of the audited membership of the Party, or such other adjusted figure as may agreed upon by the Federal Council to cater for variations in that membership, allocated to the provinces and regions, if they exist, on the basis of the votes cast for the Party in the most recent election of a national nature, and elected by a proportional voting system approved by the Federal Council;
 - 6.1.3.16 other persons invited by the Leader or the Federal Chairperson, with the approval of the Federal Council, provided that such persons may not vote.
- 6.1.4 The Federal Congress elects the Leader, the Federal Chairperson and the Deputy Federal Chairpersons.
 - 6.1.5 The Federal Chairperson or one of the Deputy Chairpersons, assigned by the Federal Chairperson, acts as the chairperson of the Federal Congress.
 - 6.1.6 The Federal Executive must take all decisions relevant to the organisation of the Federal Congress including the date, venue and agenda.
 - 6.1.7 The Federal Congress takes decisions on all aspects of policy, organisation, finance and discipline, and all such decisions are binding on the Party, provided that it may not repeal or alter the Vision, the Principles or the Programme of Action of the Party as set out in this Constitution unless that repeal or alteration is agreed to by not less than four-fifths of the registered delegates at that Congress.

6.2 FEDERAL COUNCIL

- 6.2.1 There must be a Federal Council of the Party.
- 6.2.2 When the Federal Congress is not in session, the Federal Council is the policy-making and governing body of the Party.
- 6.2.3 The Federal Council comprises:
 - 6.2.3.1 the Leader;
 - 6.2.3.2 the Federal Chairperson;
 - 6.2.3.3 the three Deputy Federal Chairpersons;
 - 6.2.3.4 the leaders of the Party in the National Assembly and the National Council of Provinces if they are not already members;
 - 6.2.3.5 the Chairperson of the Federal Council, who chairs meetings;
 - 6.2.3.6 the Deputy Chairperson of the Federal Council, who chairs meetings in the absence of the Chairperson of the Federal Council;
 - 6.2.3.7 the Federal Chairperson of Finance;
 - 6.2.3.8 the Chairperson of the Federal Legal Commission;
 - 6.2.3.9 the Chief Whip of the Parliamentary Caucus;
 - 6.2.3.10 the Provincial Leaders or their nominees;
 - 6.2.3.11 the Provincial Chairpersons;
 - 6.2.3.12 the Provincial Chairpersons of Finance;
 - 6.2.3.13 the Chairpersons of regional councils of the Party in whose area of jurisdiction at least 80 000 votes were cast for the Democratic Alliance at the most recent national election;
 - 6.2.3.14 the Federal Leader of the Democratic Alliance Youth, or his or her nominee;

- 6.2.3.15 the Federal Leader of the Democratic Alliance Women's Network or her nominee;
- 6.2.3.16 the Chairperson of a structure recognised by the Federal Council which represents the Members of Provincial Legislatures of the Party, or his or her nominee;
- 6.2.3.17 the Chairperson of the Association of Democratic Alliance Councillors, or his or her nominee;
- 6.2.3.18 the Chief Executive Officer;
- 6.2.3.19 any co-opted members of the Federal Executive;
- 6.2.3.20 twenty four (24) Members of Parliament representing the Party, allocated to the provinces proportionately on the basis of votes cast at the most recent election of a national nature and elected by the Members of Parliament of the province concerned by a proportional voting system approved by the Federal Council, but subject to the condition that each province which elected a Member to Parliament at the most recent election shall be entitled to at least one representative under this clause;
- 6.2.3.21 twenty four (24) Members of Provincial Legislatures representing the Party, allocated to the provinces proportionately on the basis of votes cast at the most recent election of a national nature and elected by the Members of the Provincial Legislature of the province concerned by a proportional voting system approved by the Federal Council, but subject to the condition that each province which elected a Member to a Provincial Legislature at the most recent election shall be entitled to at least one representative under this clause;
- 6.2.3.22 twenty four (24) local government councillors representing the Party, allocated to the provinces proportionately on the basis of the votes cast at the most recent election of a national nature and elected by the provincial organisation of the Association of Democratic Alliance Councillors by a proportional voting system approved by the Federal Council, but subject to the condition that each province shall obtain at least one representative under this clause;

- 6.2.3.23 twenty four (24) members of the Party who are not public representatives, or their alternates, allocated to the provinces proportionately on the basis of the votes cast at the most recent election of a national nature and elected by the province concerned by a proportional voting system approved by the Federal Council, but subject to the condition that each province must obtain at least one representative under this clause;
- 6.2.3.24 any additional members, up to six, co-opted by the persons referred to above, subject to a two thirds majority of the Federal Council meeting approving each co-option by secret ballot;
- 6.2.3.25 one staff member from each province designated by the Provincial Chairperson, without voting rights.
- 6.2.3.26 All members of the Federal Executive who are not otherwise members of the Federal Council.

6.2.4 Election of Federal Council Office Bearers

- 6.2.4.1 The Federal Council must at its first ordinary meeting held after a Federal Congress elect a Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson, and a Federal Chairperson of Finance, who automatically become members of the Federal Council upon their election.
- 6.2.4.2 Existing Federal Council office bearers as defined in 5.2.4.1 remain in office until the first ordinary meeting of the Federal Council after a Federal Congress.
- 6.2.4.3 Any casual vacancy which exists or which may arise before the holding of the first ordinary meeting of the Federal Council may be filled on an interim basis by an election held by the Federal Executive but any office bearers so elected must vacate office to enable an election to take place at the Federal Council meeting.

6.2.5 Sub-committees

The Federal Council may establish sub-committees and may assign to them functions, duties and powers consistent with this constitution.

6.2.6 Prescribing rules and regulations

- 6.2.6.1 The Federal Council must prescribe or approve regulations for the selection of candidates for the National Assembly and for the National Council of Provinces;
- 6.2.6.2 The Federal Council must meet at least twice a year at times and places determined by the Chairperson, and is obliged to do so by decision of the Federal Executive or when requested by a petition signed by at least 30% of its members.
- 6.2.6.3 A majority of the members of the Federal Council constitutes a quorum.
- 6.2.6.4 In years when no Federal Congress is held, the Federal Council must invite provinces and regions to submit resolutions concerning policy, organisation, finance and discipline for consideration and decision by the Federal Council but those decisions may not repeal or alter this Constitution.
- 6.2.6.5 Policy resolutions must be submitted in writing to all members of the Federal Council and to the Member of Parliament appointed as national spokesperson for the portfolio to which the policy resolution relates, 14 days before the Federal Council meeting. Similarly, notice should be given to provincial spokespersons or to the Association of Democratic Alliance Councillors if provincial government or local government matters are to be debated.

6.3 FEDERAL EXECUTIVE

- 6.3.1 There must be a Federal Executive of the party which comprises:
 - 6.3.1.1 the Leader;
 - 6.3.1.2 the Federal Chairperson;
 - 6.3.1.3 the three Deputy Federal Chairpersons;
 - 6.3.1.4 the Chairperson of the Federal Council, who chairs meetings of the Federal Executive;

- 6.3.1.5 the Deputy Chairperson of the Federal Council, who chairs meetings in the absence of the Chairperson of the Federal Council;
- 6.3.1.6 the leaders of the Party in the National Assembly and the National Council of Provinces if they are not already members;
- 6.3.1.7 the Federal Chairperson of Finance;
- 6.3.1.8 the Chief Whip of the Parliamentary Caucus;
- 6.3.1.9 the Provincial Leaders or their nominees;
- 6.3.1.10 the Federal Leader of the Democratic Alliance Youth, or his or her nominee;
- 6.3.1.11 the Federal Leader of the Democratic Alliance Women's Network or her nominee;
- 6.3.1.12 the Chairperson of a structure recognised by the Federal Council which represents the Members of Provincial Legislatures of the Party, or his or her nominee;
- 6.3.1.13 the Chairperson of the Association of Democratic Alliance Councillors, or his or her nominee;
- 6.3.1.14 the Chief Executive Officer;
- 6.3.1.15 up to six members co-opted by a two-thirds majority of the Federal Executive by secret ballot.

6.3.2 Meetings, powers and functions of Federal Executive

- 6.3.2.1 The Federal Executive must meet regularly and whenever the Leader or the Chairperson of the Federal Council so determines, or when at least one half of its members request a meeting.
- 6.3.2.2 The majority of the members of the Federal Executive constitutes a quorum.
- 6.3.2.3 The Federal Executive may invite one or more persons to attend, but not to vote at any of its meetings.

- 6.3.3 The Federal Executive:
- 6.3.3.1 performs the functions and exercises the powers of the Federal Council when the Council is not in session; save that only the full Federal Council may approve candidate selection regulations and any amendments thereto;
 - 6.3.3.2 implements the decisions of the Federal Council;
 - 6.3.3.3 appoints the Chief Executive Officer of the Party, who is in turn responsible for appointing all other Party staff, subject to the policy and directives of the federal executive;
 - 6.3.3.4 controls and directs activities of the Party;
 - 6.3.3.5 subject to this constitution and the constitutions of the provinces, takes decisions and makes regulations, binding on all party structures, concerning membership administration, organisation, finance, discipline and other matters affecting the welfare of the Party;
 - 6.3.3.6 in consultation with the respective province or region, sets and monitors performance targets for each province and region;
- 6.3.4 If a province or region fails to implement decisions by the Federal Executive, and further fails to comply with a notice to correct the default within 30 days, the Federal Executive may take corrective measures to ensure the compliance by the province with the requirements of the Federal Executive.
- 6.3.5 The Federal Executive may delegate any of its powers to any person or committee and may establish sub-committees and assign to them such functions, duties and powers not inconsistent with this Constitution, as it may deem fit.
- 6.3.6 The Federal Executive must take all decisions relevant to the organisation of the Federal Congress including the date, venue and agenda.

6.4 NATIONAL MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The day-to-day management of the administration of the Party is entrusted to a National Management Committee consisting of the Leader, the Parliamentary Leader if the Leader is not a Member of Parliament, the Federal Chairperson, the Chairperson and the Deputy Chairperson of the Federal Council, the Chief Executive Officer, and such other persons as may be co-opted to assist. The National Management Committee shall report to the each Federal Executive meeting on its activities and any decisions taken.

CHAPTER SEVEN

SENIOR OFFICE-BEARERS

7.1 THE LEADER

- 7.1.1 Except when the Federal Congress, Federal Council or Federal Executive are in session, and within the framework of the Vision, Principles and Programme of Action of the Party, interprets and makes the policy of the Party, provided that policy-making is limited to decisions urgently required in respect of new matters or new situations;

- 8.1.3 The Chairperson of the Federal Finance Committee must report to every Federal Council meeting and to every Federal Congress.

CHAPTER NINE

CAUCUSES

9.1 ESTABLISHMENT OF CAUCUSES

- 9.1.1 All Members of the National Parliament who are members of the DA are members of the Parliamentary Caucus of the Party.
- 9.1.2 All Members of the Provincial Legislatures who are members of the DA are members of the Provincial Caucus of the Party in their province.
- 9.1.3 All councillors in local government councils who are members of the DA are members of the Municipal Caucus of the Party in the council in which they serve.

9.2 FUNCTIONING

- 9.2.1 The Chief Whip of any legislative body, if that position is held by a DA member, is automatically the Chief Whip of the relevant caucus.
- 9.2.3 Each caucus elects a chairperson and whip or whips from amongst its own members, save that chief whips, where these exist, will be chosen according to a system approved by the federal council.
- 9.2.4 The Leader is automatically the leader of the Parliamentary Caucus if he or she is a Member of Parliament. The Premier is automatically the leader of the caucus in the relevant provincial legislature, and the mayor is automatically the leader of the relevant municipal caucus, where these positions are held by DA members. In all other cases the caucuses elect a leader from their own ranks.
- 9.2.5 Each caucus functions and takes decisions in absolute confidentiality.
- 9.2.6 Members must at all times adhere to and support decisions of the relevant caucus and must not differ publicly from any decision once it has been taken except when it has been decided by the caucus that a member may on a question of conscience exercise a free vote.
- 9.2.7 Members must attend caucus meetings punctually and no member is excused from attending a caucus meeting except by leave of the Whip.

- 9.2.8 Members must at all times perform their duties in the relevant forum, their duties towards the voters and particularly their duties towards Party supporters diligently and to the level and standard required by the Party as set out in the applicable code.

9.3 DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF CAUCUSES

- 9.3.1 Caucuses are responsible for the proper functioning of the Party in the relevant forum and may, subject to this constitution and subject to the relevant Party formations, formulate policy and oversee policy formulation by spokespersons.
- 9.3.2 Portfolio spokespersons shall be designated in each case by the Leader of the Party in the caucus concerned.

9.4 DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- 9.4.1 The National Leader, a Provincial Leader or the relevant caucus Leader or Chief Whip may refer a member of any caucus to the applicable Disciplinary Committee for an enquiry on a charge of misconduct in terms of this Constitution.
- 9.4.2 Any caucus may, by majority decision, suspend a member from attending meetings of that caucus, pending the outcome of an enquiry referred to in clause 9.5.1.

9.5 CAUCUS RULES

- 9.5.1 Each caucus must draft and accept a set of Caucus Rules unless exempted by the Federal Executive.
- 9.5.2 All Caucus Rules must be submitted to the Federal Legal Commission for certification that they are consistent with this Constitution. They must thereafter be submitted to the Federal Council for approval, whereafter they shall come into force.

CHAPTER 10

MEDIATION PANEL

10.1 APPOINTMENT OF MEDIATION PANEL

- 10.1.1 The Federal Executive, at its first ordinary meeting after each Federal Congress, must elect a Chairperson of the mediation panel. thereafter, the federal executive shall appoint a panel of ten additional people who are as objective as possible, preferably including one from each province, who together with the chairperson of the mediation panel, will make recommendations to the federal council for the appointment of the other panel members, consisting of not more than nine (9) additional fit and proper, and suitably qualified, persons, as the Mediation Panel (“the Panel”).
- 10.1.2 Members of the Panel must at all times preferably be members of the Party. If they are not, they shall be required to sign confidentiality agreements. The Chairperson shall be a Member of the Party.
- 10.1.3 The term of office of members of the panel only expires when his or her successor/s is/are appointed; provided that a member whose term has expired, remains in office for the purposes of completing any uncompleted investigations.

10.2 POWERS AND FUNCTIONS

- 10.2.1 The Panel has all the powers as are necessary to exercise its functions in terms of this Constitution and must, at the request of any member, subject to the procedures set out herein:
- 10.2.1.1 investigate any allegation of unjustified preference for or prejudice against any member or group of members as a consequence of that member’s or those members’ race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, national ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language or birth;
- 10.2.1.2 investigate any internal policy, procedure or practice, the alleged effect of which is to unjustifiably prefer or prejudice any member or group of members, as a consequence of that member’s or those members’ race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, national ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language or birth;

10.2.1.3 investigate any allegation of an action or statement by a member or group of members taken or made against any other member or group of members which sought to advance or deprecate that latter member or group of members as a consequence of his, her or their race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, national ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language or birth.

10.2.1.4 investigate any other matter referred to it by the Federal Executive.

10.2.2 The Panel:

10.2.2.1 determines the date or dates for any investigation;

10.2.2.2 hears evidence or views, accepts exhibits and calls for papers or documents relevant to the investigation;

10.2.2.3 reports to the Federal Executive on all investigations that they have undertaken, and may make recommendations to the Federal Executive on any matter or issue that arises directly or indirectly from any such investigation;

10.2.2.4 shall mediate between parties involved in any investigation, wherever possible;

10.2.2.5 may refer any person or any matter to the Federal Legal Commission for further investigation, following the procedures set out herein, if there are prima facie grounds for a disciplinary enquiry;

10.2.2.6 may decide that a matter referred to it does not warrant investigation on the grounds that it is frivolous, vexatious or without foundation.

10.2.3 Procedures

- 10.2.3.1 Any complaint to the Panel must first be directed to the Chairperson of the Federal Council for referral to the Panel.
- 10.2.3.2 The Panel must draw up procedures to be followed when they investigate any matter referred to it. Such procedures, and any amendments thereto, must be approved by the Federal Executive.
- 10.2.3.3 The Panel must deal with each complaint as soon as reasonably possible, but each complaint must be finalised by the Panel no longer than two (2) months after it has been referred to it, and by the Federal Executive no longer than three (3) months after it has been referred to it. The Federal Executive may grant an extension of time only in exceptional circumstances, and then for as short a time as possible.
- 10.2.3.4 No complainant or witness may insist on legal representation unless there are compelling reasons for him or her to be so represented. The decision as to whether there are such reasons is in the sole discretion of the Chairperson.
- 10.2.3.5 All proceedings in terms of this Chapter shall be in camera.
- 10.2.3.6 No evidence before the Panel may be used in any subsequent disciplinary proceedings of a Disciplinary Committee or of the Federal Legal Commission.
- 10.2.3.7 The Federal Executive shall inform the complainant in writing immediately after it has considered the report or investigation.
- 10.2.3.8 No member of the professional staff may submit a complaint for investigation by the Mediation Panel unless that member has exhausted all channels provided for by the Party's human resources policy.
- 10.2.3.9 The Federal Executive must report to the Federal Council what action it has taken as a result of any report or recommendation received from the Panel.

10.2.3.10 The Federal Executive must fund and resource the Panel to enable it to fulfil the duties and responsibilities outlined in this Constitution.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

LEGAL COMMISSION, DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEES AND DISCIPLINARY ENQUIRIES

11.1 FEDERAL LEGAL COMMISSION

- 11.1.1. The Federal Council must at its first ordinary meeting after each Federal Congress elect the Chairperson of the Federal Legal Commission. Thereafter, the Federal Executive shall appoint a panel of ten (10) additional people who are as objective as possible, preferably including one from each province, who, together with the Chairperson of the Federal Legal Commission, will make recommendations to the Federal Council for the appointment of the other panel members, consisting of up to twenty (20) members of whom at least fifteen (15) must be legally qualified persons as well as up to ten (10) alternates of whom at least six (6) must be so qualified and must fill any vacancy as it arises.
- 11.1.2 A member of the Legal Commission must at all times preferably be a member of the Party.
- 11.1.3 The Federal Legal Commission must develop rules for the selection of panels to hear matters. A panel must consist of five persons, of whom at least three must be legally qualified persons.
- 11.1.4 Three (3) members of whom at least two (2) are legally qualified persons constitute a quorum for a panel.
- 11.1.5 The Federal Legal Commission determines its own rules and procedures, which may not be in conflict with this constitution: Provided that in the case of an investigation referred to in clause 9.2.1.5 the procedure referred to in clause 9.5 must apply.
- 11.1.6 A person appointed by the Chairperson of the Federal Council acts as registrar to the Commission.
- 11.1.7 The term of office of the Federal Legal Commission only expires when its successor is appointed: provided that a Federal Legal Commission whose term has expired, remains in office for the purpose of completing an uncompleted matter.

11.2 POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF THE FEDERAL LEGAL COMMISSION

- 11.2.1 The Federal Legal Commission has all powers as are necessary to exercise its functions in terms of this constitution justly and expeditiously and must, at the request of the Leader or the Federal Executive or the Federal Council:
 - 11.2.1.1 interpret this Constitution and any Provincial Constitution;
 - 11.2.1.2 certify a Provincial Constitution and any amendments thereto as being in accordance with this constitution;
 - 11.2.1.3 determine any dispute referred to it;
 - 11.2.1.4 decide on the legality or otherwise of any meeting, action, election or resolution by any Party structure;
 - 11.2.1.5 deal with appeals under this Constitution;
 - 11.2.1.6 conduct an investigation to determine whether a public representative be removed from office on the grounds of incompetence, inefficiency or incapacity;
 - 11.2.1.7 conduct an enquiry in terms of clause 11.6, and
 - 11.2.1.8 certify caucus rules and any amendments thereto as being in accordance with this Constitution.

- 11.2.2 When any matter is referred to it by the Federal Executive or the Federal Council, the Federal Legal Commission
 - 11.2.2.1 determines the date for the consideration of the matter and advises the parties thereof;
 - 11.2.2.2 hears evidence, accepts exhibits and calls for papers and documents;
 - 11.2.2.3 hears argument by and on behalf of all parties with a direct interest in the matter; and
 - 11.2.2.4 makes recommendations or gives a decision as it deems fit under the circumstances.

- 11.2.3 The decisions of the Federal Legal Commission are not subject to appeal and the findings of the Commission must be implemented by the relevant structures of the Party: Provided that a recommendation that a public representative be removed from office, must be confirmed by the Federal Executive.
- 11.2.4 The chairperson of the Federal Legal Commission reports in full to the Federal Executive or the Federal Council upon finalization of the proceedings.
- 11.2.5 The Federal Legal Commission is funded by the Federal Council.

11.3 APPEALS TO AND REVIEWS BY THE FEDERAL LEGAL COMMISSION

- 11.3.1 Any prospective candidate for national, provincial or local government office has the right of appeal to the Federal Legal Commission in respect of the nomination and selection of candidates on the grounds that the proper procedure was not followed or that the nomination was invalid for any other reason.
- 11.3.2 Any public representative who wishes to appeal against the findings of a provincial disciplinary committee, confirmed by a Provincial Executive and which may lead to the termination of membership of that representative, has an appeal to the Federal Legal Commission.

11.4 ESTABLISHMENT OF DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEES

- 11.4.1 A Provincial Executive must at its first meeting after every Provincial Congress elect a Disciplinary Committee.
- 11.4.2 Except where the Federal Council allows otherwise, every Disciplinary Committee must consist of not more than ten (10) members and ten (10) alternates; more than half the number must have suitable legal qualifications.
- 11.4.3 Three (3) members of whom at least one must be legally qualified will form a quorum, provided that the Committee must at all times be chaired by one of the legally qualified members.

11.5 PROCEDURE APPLICABLE TO PROCEEDINGS OF A DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

- 11.5.1 The Rules of Procedure prescribed by the Federal Legal Commission must apply to all proceedings of a Disciplinary Committee: Provided that the rules of natural justice must at all times be adhered to. In particular the Committee must not make any adverse finding against any person unless:

11.5.1.1 The person has been fully informed of every allegation against him or her and has been given the opportunity to rebut the allegations; and 11.5.1.2 Has been given the opportunity to submit evidence of mitigating factors.

11.5.2 Persons against whom disciplinary action is taken are entitled to be represented, at their own cost.

11.6 REFERRAL TO DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

11.6.1 A Provincial Executive or the Federal Executive may refer a charge of misconduct against any member to the relevant Disciplinary Committee for investigation.

11.6.2 If the Disciplinary Committee fails to act within a reasonable time, the relevant Executive may refer the matter to the Federal Legal Commission which will act as if the matter had been referred to it in terms of clause 11.6.4.

11.6.3 If a Provincial Executive declines to refer a matter or fails to act within a reasonable time in terms of clause 11.6.1, the Federal Executive, may upon the application of any interested member or Party formation, deal with the matter in terms of clause 11.6.1.

11.6.4 The Federal Council or Federal Executive may in the interest of justice, direct that a disciplinary enquiry be conducted by a disciplinary committee of another Province or the Federal Legal Commission in which event that committee or commission must follow the procedure prescribed for disciplinary committees.

11.6.5 No provision of the Constitution limits the right of the Federal Executive or a Provincial Executive:

11.6.5.1 to temporarily suspend a member from taking part in any or all of the activities of the Party, pending the outcome of a disciplinary enquiry in terms of this chapter; or 11.6.5.2 to appoint a commission to enquire into any matter in order to establish the facts relevant to the matter to be referred.

11.7 FINDINGS BY DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEES

- 11.7.1 A Committee may find that a person is guilty or not guilty of the offence with which he or she has been charged. In the event that the finding is one of guilty, the Committee may recommend that:
- 11.7.1.1 the membership of the person being investigated, be terminated;
 - 11.7.1.2 the membership of the person being investigated be suspended for a specified period;
 - 11.7.1.3 the person being investigated be suspended from any position in the Party or from holding any position in future or for a specified period or that all or any of the privileges of a member as stated in this constitution be suspended;
 - 11.7.1.4 the person being investigated be admonished;
 - 11.7.1.5 the person found guilty of misconduct may be fined an amount not exceeding the amount determined by the Federal Council from time to time payable upon such terms and conditions as the committee may recommend;
 - 11.7.1.6 The person found guilty be ordered to render a period of service, including but not limited to, service to the community or to the Party;
- 11.7.2 In addition to any of the above penalties, the following penalties may be recommended by a Committee of the Federal Legal Commission only:
- 11.7.2.1 The person found guilty be removed or suspended from any executive position they hold in a council, provincial legislature or Parliament. Provided that in the case of a suspension, it must be for a specified period and/or on such terms and conditions as the Committee deems fit. Provided further that in the event that the person fails to comply with the penalty so imposed, and resign his or her position in the relevant body within five (5) days after receipt of notice instructing him or her to do so, their membership shall terminate immediately without further notice;

- 11.7.2.2 The person found guilty be prohibited from holding an executive position in a council, provincial legislature or Parliament in the future or for a specified time period, and on such terms and conditions as the Committee deems fit;
- 11.7.2.3 The person found guilty be removed from a public representative position and/or prohibited from holding a position as a public representative for the Party in future or for a specified time period.
- 11.7.3 Any penalty recommended by a Disciplinary Committee may also contain the recommendation that its imposition be suspended for a specified time period and on such conditions as the Committee may deem fit.
- 11.7.4 A caucus executive may take such disciplinary steps as may be provided for in their caucus rules, which have been approved by the caucus, certified by the Federal Legal Commission and approved by the Federal Council. Provided that no disciplinary action which could lead to the termination of membership or suspension or removal from an executive position or a position in the Party, shall be possible of inclusion in caucus rules.
- 11.7.5 The Committee must report its findings and recommendations to the relevant Executive.

11.8 DECISIONS BY THE EXECUTIVE

- 11.8.1 The Provincial or Federal Executive, as the case may be, must consider the findings and recommendation of the Disciplinary Committee and:
 - 11.8.1.1 must accept the finding of the Committee; and
 - 11.8.1.2 must consider the recommendation of the committee regarding the penalty, if any, and may either confirm it, or impose a lesser or greater penalty than that recommended by the Committee, with good reason.
- 11.8.2 Subject to the appeal mechanism referred to in clause 11.3.2, the decision of the relevant Executive is final.

11.9 REPORTING TO FEDERAL COUNCIL

The Federal Legal Commission shall report on all its findings and recommendations, as well as all matters referred to it and which are not yet finalised, to every Federal Council meeting. The Provincial Disciplinary Committee shall likewise report to every Provincial Council Meeting.

CHAPTER TWELVE

DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE YOUTH AND DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE WOMEN'S NETWORK AND DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE OVERSEAS NETWORK

12.1 DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE YOUTH

- 12.1.1 A formation of the Party known as the Democratic Alliance Youth must be established to further the Vision and Core Values, the Principles and Programme of Action of the Party among young people and to pay particular attention to the interests of and the matters affecting young people.
- 12.1.2 The organisation structures and functions of youth formations of the Party are detailed in the constitution of the Democratic Alliance Youth adopted by the Democratic Alliance Youth Congress. The Federal Legal Commission must certify the Constitution and amendments thereto as being in accordance with this Constitution, and the Federal Council must approve that constitution or amendments before it or they become effective.
- 12.1.3 The Democratic Alliance Youth Constitution must not contain any provision that conflicts with the Vision, the Principles, the Programme of Action or the Mission Statement of the Party or that is inconsistent with the provisions of this Constitution. If a dispute arises as to the interpretation of any provision of the Democratic Alliance Youth Constitution or if that Constitution is silent upon the issue, the provisions of this Constitution must prevail.
- 12.1.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary which may be contained in the Constitution of the Democratic Alliance Youth, the Chairperson of the Federal Council of the Party may, after satisfying himself or herself of the situation, act in terms of clauses 5.6 and 6.3.4 of this Constitution, with the necessary changes.

12.2 DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE WOMEN'S NETWORK

- 12.2.1 A formation of the Party known as the Democratic Alliance Women's Network must be established to further the Vision, the Principles and Programme of Action of the Party among women and to pay particular attention to the interests of and the matters affecting women.
- 12.2.2 The organisation structures and functions of women's formations of the Party are detailed in the constitution of the Democratic Alliance Women's formation adopted by the Democratic Alliance Women's Network Congress. The Federal Council must approve that constitution and any amendments thereto, and the Federal Legal Commission must certify it as being in accordance with this Constitution before it or they can become effective
- 12.2.3 The Democratic Alliance Women's Network Constitution must not contain any provision that conflicts with the Vision, the Principles, the Programme of Action or the Mission Statement of the Party or that is inconsistent with the provisions of this Constitution. If a dispute arises as to the interpretation of any provision of the Democratic Alliance Women's Network Constitution or if that Constitution is silent upon the issue, the provisions of this Constitution must prevail.
- 12.2.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary which may be contained in the Constitution of the Democratic Alliance Women's Network, the Chairperson of the Federal Council of the Party may, after satisfying himself or herself of the situation, act in terms of clauses 5.6 and 6.3.4 of this Constitution, with the necessary changes.

12.3 DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCE OVERSEAS NETWORK

- 12.3.1 A formation of the Party known as the Democratic Alliance Overseas Network may be established to further the Vision, the Principles and Programme of Action of the Party among supporters of the Party living outside South Africa.
- 12.3.2 If such a network is formed, it shall ensure that a Constitution is drawn up in terms of which the structures and functions are set out. This Constitution shall be approved by a majority of the Global Council, which will be the overarching body co-ordinating all networks or branches of all overseas countries. It shall then be certified by the Federal Legal Commission as being consistent with this Constitution, and thereafter approved by the Federal Council before it becomes effective.

- 12.3.3 Such a Constitution may not contain any provision that is inconsistent with this Constitution. In the event of a conflict, the provisions of this Constitution shall prevail.
- 12.3.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary which may be contained in the Constitution of the DA Overseas Network, the Chairperson of the Federal Council of the Party may, after satisfying himself or herself of the situation, act in terms of clauses 5.6 and 6.3.4 of this Constitution, with the necessary changes.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

RELATIONSHIP WITH OTHER ORGANISATIONS

13.1 RELATIONSHIP WITH INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATIONS

The Party fosters friendly relations and maintains bonds internationally with organisations and political parties that could promote the aims of the Party.

13.2 AGREEMENT WITH OTHER PARTIES:

An election or any other agreement with any other political party or independent candidate may not be entered into by:

13.2.1 any member, aspirant candidate or public representative;

13.2.2 a branch, a constituency, a regional sub-structure, Regional Council or Provincial Council, or the executives of any of these bodies;

13.2.3 any group of members of the Party;

without the prior consent of the Federal Executive and disregard of this provision is deemed to be an act against the interests of the Party.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

GENERAL PROVISIONS

14.1 AMENDMENT, MERGER AND DISSOLUTION

Only the Federal Congress may amend this Constitution, or merge or dissolve the Party and consequently dispose of its assets, by vote of not fewer than two-thirds of the members present and voting at that particular meeting, provided that notice of that proposal must have been given to each Province not less than four weeks before that Congress.

14.2 INCONSISTENCIES

14.2.1 In the event of inconsistency between the translations of the Constitution into other languages, the English text prevails.

14.2.2 Should any dispute arise on the interpretation of any section of this Constitution, the English text is regarded as the original.

14.3 DEFINITIONS

In this constitution, unless a different meaning appears from the context, the following words have the meanings ascribed to them:

“proportional system of voting” means a system of voting as amended by the Federal Council from time to time.

“votes cast for the Party” means the votes cast for the party in the most recent election of a national nature, whether that was for the National Assembly and the provincial legislatures or for local government in South Africa. If it was an election for the local sphere of government, it refers to both the votes cast on the proportional ballot for the category A or B municipalities as defined in section 155 of the National Constitution. If it was an election for the provincial and national spheres of government, it refers to the votes cast on the national ballot.

“notice”

notice for any annual general meeting, inaugural general meeting, special general meeting or any other meeting where any form of election is to take place, means notice in writing and which notice is to be dispatched on the first day of the notice period, if any notice period is prescribed, or no less than 72 hours before the meeting in all other cases.

“writing”

means notice by ordinary post, registered post, fax, email or sms, the delivery of such notice having to be proved in a manner determined from time to time by the Federal Council.

“validly constituted”

means that the structure meets the requirements of this Constitution and any other constitution applicable to it, in respect of membership, meetings, quorums and notices.

“Disciplinary Committee”

means a Disciplinary Committee provided for in terms of this Constitution, or a panel of the Federal Legal Commission established for the purpose of hearing a matter of a disciplinary nature.

(As adopted by the Federal Congress on 13 April 2002, amended by the Federal Congress on 21 November 2004, 5 May 2007 and on 24 July 2010)
